

Peace --- Poetry --- Truth

Welcome!

Hey there! :)

Welcome to our inaugural newsletter. I am thrilled that we are landing in your digital mailbox. Most of you know me and know I am always open to suggestions, so if you see something we need to fix or something we forgot to share, please let me know at ecpoets@gmail.com. This is all kinda new to me, so Iâ€™m not exactly sure what to include in this intro note but I wanted to be sure to say hello and thank you for all your love and support.

EC Poetry and Prose started in Old Ellicott City back in 2019 when a few of us just wanted good food and great poetry together. ECPP is evolving into a collective of talented poets who rock the pages and stages of the region and the online world. We are blessed to have a cohort of members who have won awards and accolades all over the world (yes it's true).

There is so much we have to share with you that we have to pace so as to not overwhelm you.

We want your participation in this journey, so we are starting a Poem-of-the-Month project. We will publish a reader's poem each month as a way to spread a little love and truth into your world. If you would like to submit your poem for possible publication, use this link: <https://tinyurl.com/poemofmonth> and send us your poem. We are creatives so be creative! Thank you for your time. I hope you enjoy this digital compendium.
